Sponsorship Prospectus
Welcome

Dear SRI Supporters,

On behalf of the Society for Reproductive Investigation (SRI), we invite you to join us at the 70th Annual Scientific Meeting, March 21-25, Brisbane, QLD, Australia as we take a “Deep Dive Into the Crosscurrents of Reproduction and Immunology”. SRI was established in 1953 by a group of investigators studying hypertensive disorders of pregnancy. While this topic is still studied by our investigators, today SRI is an international society with over 900 members representing 35 countries, who conduct basic, translational and clinical investigation in the reproductive sciences and women’s health. Areas of focus include obstetrics, perinatology, reproductive genetics, gynecology and gynecologic oncology, endocrinology, reproductive physiology, biochemistry, pharmacology, immunology, epidemiology, reproductive infectious disease, and reproductive stem cell and developmental biology, among others.

We are proud that SRI is the premier international organization that leads outstanding multidisciplinary basic, translational and clinical research while promoting mentorship and a commitment to training in reproductive science and women’s health to future generations of investigators.

The SRI Annual Meeting has been established as the place where translational research is integrated with basic science to create robust and interesting programs from year to year. The SRI program will feature career development workshops, career development sessions, and 5 all-day satellite meetings. The satellite meetings cover: Endometrium, Fetal Physiology, Myometrium/Parturition, Preterm Birth, Ovarian Biology and Placenta. Over the next three days attendees will be immersed in two distinguished lectures, 12 mini-symposia sessions, four sessions of oral concurrent presentations, and nearly 1,000 poster presentations. Additionally we will hold our eighth annual Connection Corners networking event geared toward new investigators, and additional career development sessions.

As a supporter of the 70th Annual Scientific Meeting of the Society for Reproductive Investigation, you will be given many opportunities to network with the world’s premier basic and clinical reproductive research professionals throughout the meeting space, poster hall, and at the welcome reception, as well as any of your supported functions. All supporters will be recognized on signage placed throughout the venue, in the program book, and on the meeting website. We look forward to your participation and support for this meeting, the world’s premier meeting in reproductive science!

About SRI

The first official meeting was held on June 15, 1953 at the Yale Club in New York City by a small group of investigators studying hypertensive disorders of pregnancy. While many members still study hypertensive disorders, the Society for Reproductive Investigation has grown to be the premier scientific organization in obstetrics and gynecology, with one-third of its members being basic scientists and two-thirds being clinical investigators. SRI members conduct basic, translational and clinical investigation in reproductive sciences and women’s health. Areas of focus include obstetrics, perinatology, reproductive genetics, gynecology and gynecologic oncology, endocrinology, reproductive physiology, biochemistry, pharmacology, immunology, epidemiology, reproductive infectious disease and reproductive stem cell and developmental biology, among others.

Mission

The mission of the Society for Reproductive Investigation (SRI) is to advance reproductive and women’s health care through (1) outstanding basic, translational, and clinical science, (2) training and mentoring future generations of investigators, (3) advocacy targeting funding agencies, policy makers, donors and the community and, (4) promoting women’s health globally.

Vision

The vision of the Society for Reproductive Investigation is to lead outstanding multidisciplinary basic, translational, and clinical research, mentorship and training, and advocacy in reproductive science and research and women’s health.
